- (2) Candidates will not use unfair means including bribery, or appeal to or use of religious symbols, nor distribute gifts of various kinds such as liquor, to induce voters for support. They will strictly adhere to the prescribed campaign practices set out under Paragraph 10 below.
- (3) Proxy Voting shall not be allowed.
- (4) Campaign material if circulated should not appeal to religious, caste, or communal sentiments to entice for votes and should be not violative of the local law in force.
- (5) All Candidates are expected to cooperate with the Electoral Officer and his designated staff for smooth conduct of voting during the entire process.
- (6) In case of any Dispute or Objection as to Candidacy, Disqualification, Eligibility to Vote or Admission or Rejection of Vote, the Electoral Officer shall decide the same and such decision shall be final and conclusive.

9. Campaign Practices

- (1) Campaigns
 - (a) Campaigning (if any) shall be carried out by the Candidates in a fair and reputable manner and, more generally, in a spirit of respect for fundamental ethical principles.
 - (b) Candidates shall conduct all campaigns with dignity and moderation and with due respect to other Candidates, the ICA and the voting electorate. A Candidate may produce no spoken word, written text or representation of any nature likely to harm the image of another Candidate or cause him/her prejudice. Criticism of other Candidates, when made, shall be confined to their policies and programmes, past record and work. Criticism based on unverified allegations or distortion shall be avoided. There shall be no appeal to caste or communal feelings for securing votes.
 - (c) Each Candidate may present to the Electoral College His / Her plans and views for the Post, in the form of a written document, whatever the means used to distribute it.
 - (d) Candidates shall avoid excessive expenditure in Campaigning, recognising that it could become a factor of inequality amongst the Candidates.

- (e) No public meeting or gathering of any kind may be organised in the framework of promoting a Candidature. No use, free of charge or in return for payment, of the services of a journalist or the media may be made in order to place a Candidate at an advantage or a disadvantage.
- (f) All Candidates shall avoid scrupulously all activities that are “corrupt practices”, such as bribing of voters, intimidation of voters, impersonation of voters, etc.
- (g) Candidates may in no case and under no pretext give presents, offer donations or gifts or grant advantages of whatever nature, directly or indirectly, to voting members or their representatives.

10. Neutrality and Independence

- (1) Candidates may not accept mandatory instructions from any public or private, natural or legal person. No direct or indirect assistance, be it financial, material or in kind, be it direct or indirect, may be given to Candidates by any third party. Candidates may not enter into any form of undertaking with any natural or legal person likely to affect the neutrality and the freedom of decision or action of their future post.
- (2) The ICA’s executive team and administration shall maintain a duty of neutrality at all times. No support or service in relation to a candidature may be requested from nor be given by any member of the ICA’s administration or staff.

11. Disputes and Objections

- (1) In case of any Disputes or Objection arising with respect to the ICA Election 2023, from the declaration or publication of Electoral Roll to the Declaration of Results including but not limited to objection to candidacy, disqualification, eligibility to vote or the admission or rejection of a vote, the Electoral Officer shall decide the same and such a decision shall be final and conclusive.
